

Achill Island

3 2 1 1

Viktor Magnusson on Swedish Delight. Photo by Viktor Magnusson.

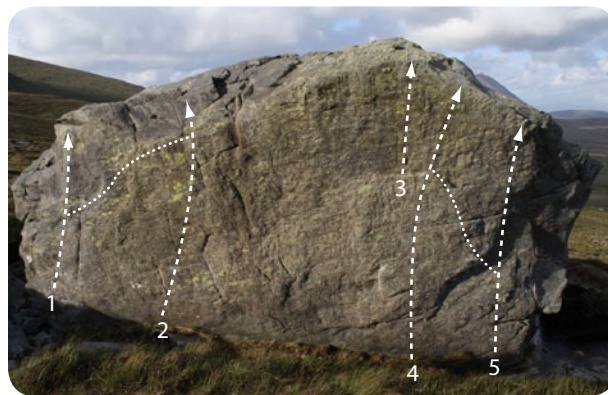

The Lonely Boulder

On the north west tip of Achill Island is a nice boulder of rough sandstone. There may well be more bouldering on the island.

Approach

Lough Acorrymore is located between Dooagh and Keem, at the far end of Achill Island. Follow the signs for Lough Acorrymore from Dooagh and park. Cross the stream. The jumble of boulders on the left has potential for a few easy lowball problems. To get to the Lonely Boulder, follow the track across the stream and turn right walking over the crest for 100m.

- | | | | |
|---|---------------------------|----|---|
| 1 | Donuts from Dooagh | 4 | SS just right of the arete. A variation Dooagh Traverse 5 shares the same start but moves right into FA Kát . |
| 2 | FA Kát | 3 | Straight up the wall from a standing start. The SS is a project. |
| 3 | - | P | Dyno to the top from the edge in the middle of the wall. |
| 4 | Swedish Delight | 6a | An excellent problem. SS to a crimp and a good pocket, dynamic move to the top. |
| 5 | Lone Star | 4+ | Layback the jugs. Swedish Star 5 has the same start but moves into Swedish Delight . |